

22. SPECTRUM TALKS

IEEE spectrum talk is a series of talks conducted on every alternate Fridays in the college.

Articles on latest technologies from the IEEE spectrum magazines are read out and the details are discussed in groups.

It is aimed to create awareness among students about the latest technologies and innovations in different fields of engineering.

